SOVIET STAND BRINGS ANGER IN WASHINGTON

State Department Indignant Over Release of City of Flint

BULLETIN
Washington, Oct. 28—(AP)—The state department was advised officially from Berlin today that the seized American steamship City of Flint was still at Murnansk.

Alexander C. Kirk, American charge d'affaires at Berlin, reported he was told at the German foreign office late this afternoon (Berlin time) that the crew was still aboard.

Kirk said he was told also that if after completion of repairs the ship were taken to another port, the American crew presumably would be kept on board to operate the vessel.

The American consul general at Hamburg reported to Kirk, the state department was advised, that the German prize commissioner there had received no news of the vessel.

Meanwhile, Ambassador Laurence A. Steinhardt at Moscow, reported that he again was unable to speak on the telephone with the captain of the City of Flint at midnight last night (3 p. m. C. S. T., Friday) as he had hoped to do.

Steinhardt advised the state department that he again had been given to understand that the crew was well and that no illness was reported.

Washington, Oct. 28—(AP)—Indignant state department officials awaited further word of the captured American freighter City of Flint today after belated receipt of information that Soviet officials had ordered the vessel to leave Russian waters with a German prize crew in charge.

Presumably, the ship was on her precarious way down the North Sea to Hamburg. Unconfirmed reports from Bergen, Norway, said, however, that the Germans would land the American crew there.

Laurence A. Steinhardt, United States ambassador, sent word from Moscow that the City of Flint had left Murnansk in the "same status as she entered," which meant that the German crew was in charge, the American crew on board and the cargo intact. The ship was captured by a German raider while en route to England with a cargo that included some contraband.

The United States demanded possession of the vessel, contending Germany had no right to take a prize ship to a neutral port. But Vladimir Potemkin, assistant commissar of foreign affairs, told Steinhardt that to accede to the demand would be "an unneutral

Racine Father and Two Babies Die in Flames

Racine, Wis., Oct. 28—(AP)—Nick Larsen, 32, and his two daughters, Wandell, 3, and Kathleen, 14 months, burned to death last night when kerosene poured on a coal stove fire puffed and turned their three-room cottage into a mass of flame.

Ronald Larsen, 4, and a friend of the family, Nels Rysgaard, escaped with minor injuries.

District Attorney Richard Harvey said Rysgaard told the following story:

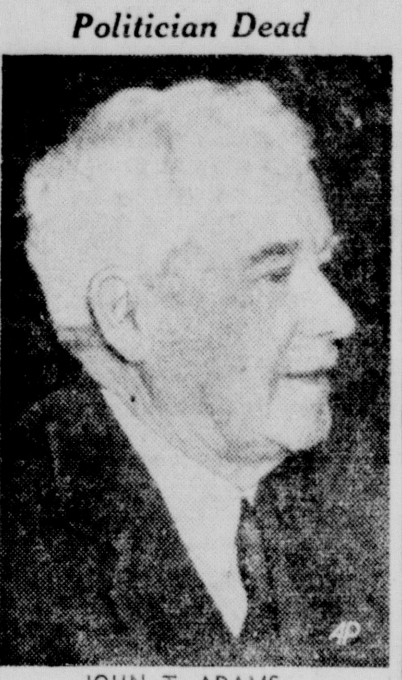

He and Larsen had purchased wine in Racine and returned to the Larsen cottage, a mile northwest of Racine, after Mrs. Larsen had gone to Racine to a card party.

Larsen then went to bed in a room where his daughters lay. Rysgaard and Ronald went to sleep in the living room.

Because it was cold, Rysgaard twice threw kerosene onto the coal stove fire. Then Ronald made an attempt and the explosion followed.

Rysgaard, in his underwear, and Ronald, in his sleepers, dashed from the blazing room into the kitchen and fled through a rear door. Rysgaard called to Larsen and received an answer but Larsen failed to emerge.

Racine firemen found Larsen's charred body in the living room, near the front door, which had been sealed for the winter. The bodies of the babies lay in their beds.

BRITISH FLIERS HAVE PICTURE OF SIEGFRIED LINE

Photographs Give Allies Pictures of Germany's Main Defenses

With the R. A. F. in France, Oct. 27—(AP)—(Delayed)—Passed by field command—The Royal Air Force, newest and most glamorous of Great Britain's fighting services, is spending most of its time in France on the workaday job of photographing enemy defenses and communication lines.

I visited today a huge airfield where, aided by every modern invention to overcome the ancient enemies of mud and weather, a squadron of the R. A. F. is preparing a photographic study with the Germans as "sitters."

The unit does everything connected with the job. It takes the pictures, develops them and sends them to general headquarters or to French artillery units which use the photographs as a basis for shelling enemy objectives.

The places at this field were being used strictly for reconnaissance. Others like them particu-

German Airmen Die In Battle Over Scotland

London, Oct. 28—(AP)—Two German airmen were killed, one wounded and a Nazi pilot captured today in an aerial drama of the skies witnessed by hundreds of Scots near Edinburgh when British fighter planes engaged and forced down a German warplane.

The air ministry announced that a German aircraft which was attempting reconnaissance was forced down by our fighters this morning east of Dalketh (about six and one half miles southeast of Edinburgh).

The invader apparently was headed for the strategic Fifth of Forth, objective of previous German raids.

Immediately after the Nazi plane was sighted, British ships went aloft with a resulting rare display of aerobatics as the German pilot tried desperately to shake off his attackers.

"Finally the German plane came down on a hillside and struck a stone wall and even then the pilot would not give up," one witness said. "He tried to get his machine into the air again and ran along the rough ground for about a half mile before he had to stop."

Doctor Has Officiated at Births of 8,000 Babies; Turns 70 Today

Chicago, Oct. 28—(AP)—Dr. Joseph B. Delee, famous obstetrician, turned 70 today, still fighting for the lives of women who give the world new life.

The gray-haired physician divided his day in a familiar pattern—eight hours' work in the attic office of his home and a visit to the Chicago Lying-in Hospital, a $3,000,000 institution which he founded on the University of Chicago campus.

Dr. Delee, who has helped deliver at least 8,000 babies, blames war fears and chaotic economic conditions for the present-day decline in the birth rate.

BALKAN NEWS REPORTS STIR UP EUROPEANS

U. S. Senate's Vote Causes Mixed Reactions

(By The Associated Press)
A clash between German police and patriotic Czechs in Prague and reports of new Balkan anxieties today stirred European capitals, where news of the United States Senate's vote to repeal the arms embargo was received with mixed reactions.

The Czech-Nazi clash came during restricted observances of the 21st anniversary of the founding of the Czechoslovak republic. Czech crowds broke through a police cordon established to prevent demonstrations before the statue of St. Wenceslas, patron saint of the Czechs.

One estimate placed the number of those arrested at 800.

Intense diplomatic activity greeted reports in the Balkans that Soviet Russia might back Bulgaria's territorial claims against Rumania.

Premier Dragisha Cvetkovich of Yugoslavia and Premier Constantine Argetoianu of Rumania conferred for four hours in a little border village. Diplomats said Yugoslavia agreed to warn Bulgaria flirtation with the Soviets might plunge the Balkans into war.

King Recalls Ministers

At Bucharest, King Carol recalled his ministers to Turkey, Bulgaria, Greece and Yugoslavia for urgent talks.

While administration supporters in Washington predicted speedy house approval of the neutrality bill, the allies welcomed the senate's vote to repeal the arms embargo.

An authoritative source in Berlin said lifting of the embargo would be considered an act in favor of the allies but added:

"Often, however, events around which a great halo is placed afterwards prove not to deserve that halo."

France received news of the senate's action with undisguised joy while British officials indicated they were "not dissatisfied." British newspapers were more outspoken, one stating passage of the bill would open America's "vast war storehouse" to the allies.

For Record Book

Chicago, Oct. 28—(AP)—Three Chicago motorists could put in a safe bid today for the record automobile leap of the year.

Errol Lee, 28, Carl Larson, 30, and Michael Hoynacki, 32, suffered only minor injuries last night when their car hit the strong base of a cemetery fence on Foster avenue and then hurtled the Chicago river—a 60 foot leap.

German People Kept Ignorant of Senate Act

(By The Associated Press)
France welcomed with undisguised joy today the United States senate's vote to repeal the arms embargo, while Britain indicated it was "not dissatisfied" and Germany—where the news was withheld from the public—maintained silence.

Paris was informed by glaring headlines in the morning newspapers.

Stirred by the possibility of obtaining more American-made warplanes—which apparently have proved their dependability on the western front—the French cautiously considered the senate vote prophetic of an administrative victory in the house.

In Britain, the senate vote caused some surprise in official quarters, which apparently had expected a stiffer fight. They suggested any comment before the issue had been decided in the house would be premature.

Diplomatic circles said unofficially, however, that Britain "at least would not be dissatisfied with the senate's decision."

The British press was more outspoken, seeing reason for encouragement. The Daily Mail commented:

"It cannot now be concealed that the prospect of such a vast war storehouse as America offers comes as a tonic encouragement to the nations fighting the cause of democracy."

While official comment was lacking in Berlin, the news apparently was not entirely unexpected there. A foreign office spokesman said no statement could be issued until after careful study.

Berlin's morning newspapers made no reference to the matter.

Their Tributes

Circuit Judge Leon Zick of Oregon, when informed by the Telegraph of Judge Harry Edwards' death, was momentarily at a loss for words. He was evidently deeply moved by the death of his colleague on the bench, when he said: "I have lost a friendly and wise counselor and associate and the state has lost a superior judge. Judge Edwards was recognized in the legal profession as one of the best trial judges in Illinois."

Judge Harry Wheat of Freeport, the other judge of the Fifteenth circuit, could not be reached today for comment.

Said Robert L. Warner, president of the Lee County Bar Assn.: "Judge Edwards was outstanding as a member of the judiciary of Illinois, and was loved, admired, and respected throughout the state. His sudden death is a terrible shock to everyone. The loss to this community and to the bar of Illinois is inestimable."

Byrd's Cruiser Encounters Snow on Indiana Lap

BULLETIN
Lima, O., Oct. 28—(AP)—A huge Antarctic snow cruiser intended for Admiral Richard E. Byrd's expedition struck a bridge and dropped about eight feet in the bed of a small stream six miles northwest of here today. The crew jumped to safety before the vehicle turned over on its side in shallow water.

A witness of the accident said that the cruiser, on its way from Chicago to Boston, struck a corner of the Pine Run bridge with a front fender and slid through a guard rail.

The cruiser had entered Ohio a few hours earlier.

First indications were that damage to the mammoth vehicle, designed to cover icy wastes near the South Pole, was slight.

Ft. Wayne, Ind., Oct. 28—(AP)—The huge snow cruiser designed for the use of Admiral Richard E. Byrd's third Antarctic exploration party had its first encounter with snow today.

Scattered snowflakes were swirling in a brisk west wind as the "ice buggy" more than a day behind schedule, lumbered over downtown streets at 6 a. m. (C. S. T.) and headed for Ohio on its trip from Chicago to Boston.

The snow cruiser was due to have reached here Thursday night, but narrow bridges and a minor clash with a truck disrupted its schedule. It halted a while at Columbia City last night and then set out for Ft. Wayne at 1:20 a. m. While the crew was here new parts for a fuel pump were obtained from a farm implement factory.

REPEAL VOTE TO BE RUSHED IN HOUSE

Approval of Neutrality Bill in Week is Predicted

Washington, Oct. 28—(AP)—Speaker Bankhead predicted today the neutrality bill approved by the Senate last night would pass the House next week without major change.

The speaker told his press conference that the House leadership would move first to send the bill to a joint Senate-House conference committee to work out a compromise between the measure as it came from the Senate and the form in which it passed the House last summer.

The chief difference was that the House approved a modified arms embargo while the Senate, ending 21 days of debate, voted 63 to 30 to repeal the existing arms embargo completely and set up a "cash and carry" system of commerce with belligerents.

Although he declined to discuss specific figures, Bankhead said he was "confident that we have a majority of the House to sustain the major features of the Senate bill."

Under the procedure outlined by the leadership, it was apparent the House would not be permitted to amend the Senate bill directly. However, Bankhead said he was prepared to accord recognition to any member of the minority for the purpose of making a motion to instruct the House conferees as to what was wanted in the final draft of the legislation. He made it plain, nevertheless, that he felt sure the administration forces would vote down such motion.

Two Days of Debate
Majority Leader Rayburn (D-Tex.), who attended the conference, said two days of House debate had been the time discussed informally with the minority leadership. The bill is scheduled to come up in the House Tuesday.

The House rules committee is scheduled to meet Monday to clear the way for the leadership's proposal.

RESTORATION OF TRAIN SERVICE ASKED BY DIXON

Council Move to Begin Action Against Illinois Central Ry.

The Dixon city council at its regular meeting last evening took initial action aimed at securing restoration of passenger train service on the Illinois Central from Freeport to Clinton. A petition bearing 33 signatures was filed with the council requesting the city to take such action.

Commissioner Joe E. Vaile supported the petition and presented the motion which was adopted by the entire council. The petition contended that the Illinois Central system had succeeded in discontinuing passenger train service through Dixon on the Freeport-Clinton line, and to supplement this service, had operated a passenger coach on a freight train. Now the railroad company is asking the state commerce commission, the petition charged, for permission to discontinue this "limited and unsatisfactory" service. The petition particularly stressed the failure of the railroad to continue mail and express service along this branch, and the text suggested as an alternative that the Illinois Central abandon all service on the Freeport-Clinton branch, remove its tracks and other equipment and deliver the property back to the state of Illinois.

Uxoricide Who Buried Body in Ditch Must Die

Oklahoma City, Oct. 28—(AP)—Tactiturn Roger Cunningham, whose graying hair belies his 34 years, must die in the electric chair for strangling his pretty, socially prominent wife and burying her body in a sewer ditch.

The verdict was reached in seven hours last night by a jury which had listened to five days of testimony, much of which sought to prove the former federal housing inspector was insane.

Sitting alone in the county jail cell he has occupied since the confessed slaying, the bespectacled prisoner offered no comment. His attorney was planning an appeal.

Cunningham's wife, Eudora, disappeared March 6 after a dinner party at the fashionable Twin Hills home of her stepfather and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Joel P. Stokes.

After five days in jail Cunningham wrote this description of the murder:

"Monday night, March 6, at 7:30 p. m., I strangled my wife, Eudora, and buried her in a partly-filled sewer between Eleventh street and Park Place in the 3600 block. May God have mercy on my soul."

He marked the grave on a crudely sketched map.

Digging by flashlight, a searching party found the body—fully clothed, even to trim brown sport shoes, tan swaggar coat and a perky blue hat.

Cunningham blamed the slaying on domestic discord.

STRICKEN AS HE VISITED WITH FAMILY

Had Hoped to Return To Bench Soon After Long Illness

Judge Harry Edwards, 59, for 27 years illustriously connected with the bar of Lee county as attorney, prosecutor and judge, passed away at his home, 516 Hennepin avenue, at 10 o'clock Friday evening, at a time when his family and host of friends in Dixon and throughout the Fifteenth judicial circuit, of which he had been judge for 19 years, had hopefully expected his early return to the bench after apparently successfully combating a heart ailment.

The judge was fatally stricken at 9:30 o'clock while seated in the library at his home with his wife and mother-in-law, Mrs. Mary Eastar. His physician was summoned and oxygen treatment, which has been successfully used in his fight to regain health, was immediately resorted to—futilely.

At Height of Career
Death came to the beloved and accomplished jurist at the height of a career marked by capable, thorough and scrupulous devotion to his chosen profession and its ethics. His life was exemplary, his judicial character in keeping with the highest traditions of the bench, and his work well done.

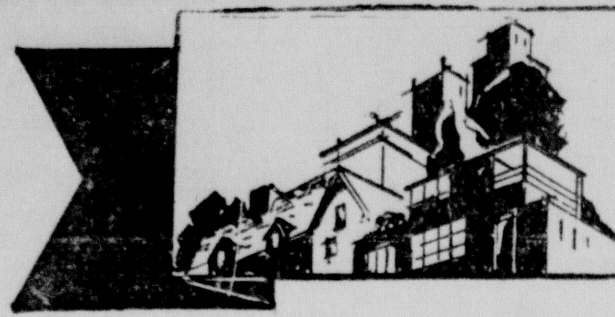

Funeral services will be held at the home at 2 o'clock Monday afternoon, the Rev. Herbert J. Doran, pastor of the First Presbyterian church officiating. Interment will be in Oakwood.

Harry Edwards, son of the late William H. and Eva A. Edwards, was born at Friend, Neb., June 27, 1880. When less than two years of age he came with his parents to Paw Paw in Lee county, where his father engaged in the operation of a general merchandise store for a period of years. He attended the public school at Paw Paw and at the age of 12 years, came to Dixon where he had resided continuously since.

He attended both public and high schools in this city and was a member and was valedictorian of the graduating class of the Dixon high school in 1898. In 1900, 1901, he attended the University of Wisconsin, and studied law in the offices of the late Judge R. S. Farrand in this city. He was admitted to the bar of Illinois in 1904.

To Bench In 1920
In 1908, he was elected state's attorney of Lee county in which office he served for a period of 12 years, having been elected and having been twice re-elected for three terms. Upon the death of the late Circuit Judge Richard S. Farrand in 1920, he was appointed to fill the unexpired term. The following

Leaking Walls Annoy Owners

HASTE IN CONSTRUCTION OF MODERN BUILDINGS OFTEN THE CAUSE

By Paul T. Haagen

All types of masonry walls which leak are sources of vexation to their owners.

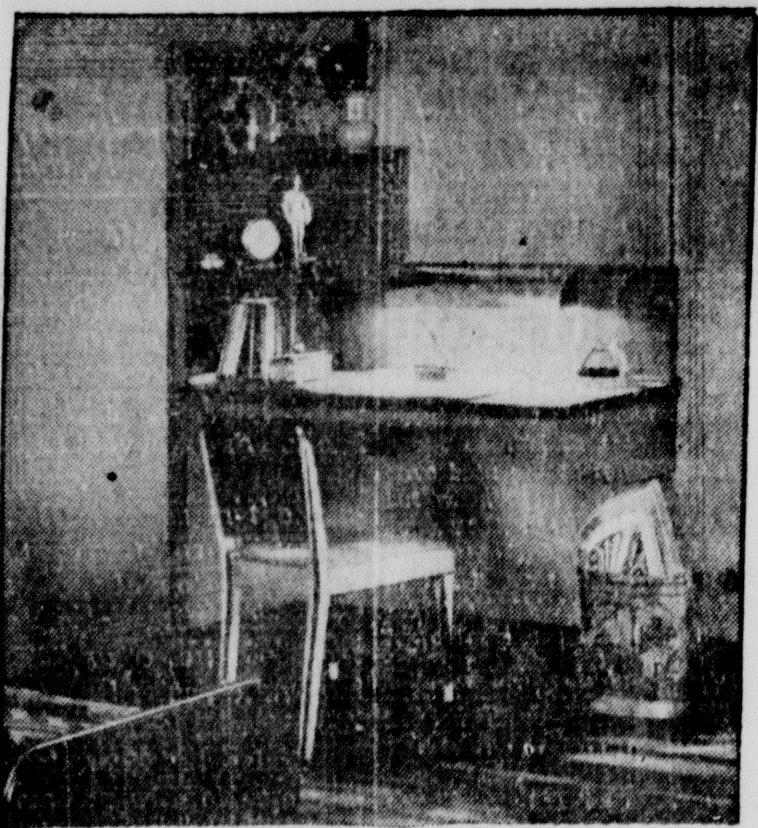

Leaky walls are not confined to any type of masonry construction. Leaks have occurred and are occurring in walls built of the best materials and apparently with special care. The fact is often overlooked, however, that the percentage of those which leak is small compared with the large number of masonry walls that are water tight.

A logical explanation for the leaks in masonry walls is the haste with which our modern buildings are erected. Workmanship is frequently sacrificed for the sake of speed. Perfection in design cannot make up for this sacrifice. The prevention of leaky walls must begin with the design of the building, follow through the selection of materials and the supervision of the workmanship, and continue with the maintenance of the structure after its completion.

Flashing should be placed under all vertical joints in sills, coping, and caps or other horizontal surfaces which may permit the accumulation of water on or the passage of water through them. Projecting soldier courses and water tables, walls corbelled back and recessed panels with projecting horizontal courses at the bottom are frequently used without consideration for the more severe exposure resulting therefrom.

As a result, water seeps through the vertical joints into the wall. Snow and ice melting on these surfaces greatly increases the possibility of water entering the wall. Flashing over horizontal surfaces may be necessary. There is no alternative for adequate flashing.

Built-in furniture keeps in step with modern construction. Here is a corner desk neatly built in to the angle of the wall. The walls are of wallboard.

Parapet walls should be flashed through just above the roof level and also under the coping. Only permanent, rust-resisting metal or bituminous, asphaltic or pitch preparations should be used for flashings.

Projections and drips on copings, caps, cornices and sills should always be provided. Overflowing gutters and leaky downspouts are a common source of trouble. Gutters and drains should be ample to carry away the heaviest rains. Metal from gutters should extend up under the roofing far enough to eliminate any possibility of water getting back of it.

HOUSING DATA TO BE AVAILABLE AFTER CENSUS

For the first time in the history of the country, specific and detailed information on the number of dwelling units is to be made available through a national census of housing to be taken in conjunction with the regular 1940 census.

It is a strange but true fact, Federal Housing Administration officials say, that there is a vast amount of information and statistics available on other subjects but until authorization by Congress of the forthcoming housing census, no comprehensive national study has made available a complete picture of the Nation's housing.

Figures are available, for instance, on the number, age, and make of automobiles, as well as the number of radios in the country, but the number of dwelling units has been counted heretofore largely through methods of estimation.

Among the important items to be considered for inclusion in the 1940 census of housing will be these: (1) Structural items: Type of structure, number of dwelling units, and year built; (2) dwelling unit items: Occupancy or tenure; duration of occupancy or vacancy; number of rooms; running water, toilet, and bathing facilities; central heat; fuel; and monthly rental; and (3) for owner-occupied structures: Owner's estimate of value, amount of real-estate taxes and special assessments, and mortgage status.

Dream Home

NO LONGER HARD TO HAVE

Who has not mused over his dream home and hoped that some day he could construct it and live in it?

Without doubt it would surpass in loveliness, in comfort and convenience anything you have ever really experienced. It would be insulated, air conditioned; it would have the best of conveniences and appliances that operate automatically. You would eliminate practically all the work and what was left would be done easily and quickly.

Probably you have despaired—particularly through the past few years—of ever owning this dream house, but today you may realize that dream through the present very desirable financing arrangements available.

No one who really wishes to own his home need delay its construction. Why not look into this matter now?

By extending the water supply 18 inches to two feet beyond the faucet to a dead end, an air chamber is formed which makes an air cushion and prevents water hammering and noises.

Bathtubs

If you are building or modernizing your bathroom, don't place the bath tub under a window unless it is impossible to avoid doing so. There may be an embarrassing moment when the shade snaps up while one is in the tub, but more especially chills from draft may bring on a cold.

Also, the tub is harder to clean if there is dirt and dust sitting in through the window all the time.

Wall Panels

In rooms where a paneled effect is desired, wall paper may be applied between wood strips which form the paneling and thus break up large expanses of plain wall surfaces.

CONCRETE ASHLAR

Concrete ashlar walls are becoming increasingly popular in home construction. Ashlar walls are built with one or more sizes of masonry units combined to form attractive patterns. In the illustration, the concrete ashlar is placed to provide the finished walls of basement Recreation Room.

Home Hardware Styles Change

Tastes in finished hardware for houses has changed materially, just as tastes in most other parts of the house have changed. The elaborately "decorative" embossed combination knob and key plates and large conspicuous brass butts, or hinges that protrude into the room in an important manner are no longer afloat.

It is no longer a crime to paint these butts. In fact, for inside work, small, unobtrusive steel or iron butts prepared for paint are now commonly used and painted with the doors. Hardware has "gone period" and in English, Spanish, or Italian houses we demand wrought iron, either with a semi-polish finish or possibly a rust finish, to give the appearance of age.

Various Types Seen

In colonial houses we range from the wrought-iron thumb latches that our humble ancestors beat out on the anvil for their little cottages to the exquisite brass and silver cutwork plates with their graceful drop handles of the manor houses of the gentry.

In between are the various types of iron spring latches exposed on the surface of the thin door they used and the same locks with iron or brass boxes to cover their "innards" that our nicer progenitors preferred. When thicker doors were used, mortised locks were installed with small round or oval brass knobs with neat brass rings or rosettes, to cover the hole in the door. With these, simple brass key holes were inserted in the wood—the whole giving a restrained, refined appearance.

Keep Periods Straight

All these styles have been revived and are used somewhat too indiscriminately. Try to keep your periods in hardware straight; you should no more put Old English wrought-iron locks on a Dutch Colonial house than you should put green blinds with owl cut-outs on an English manor house.

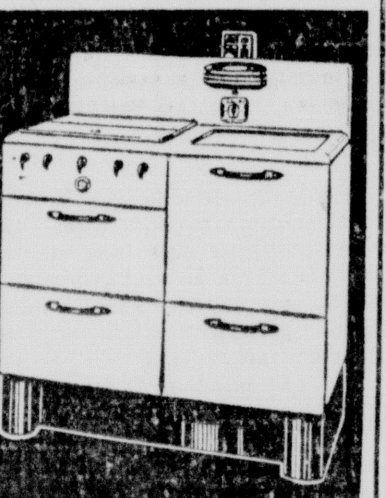

To use a paradox, or two, you can modernize your house by replacing your old hardware with new "old" models.

Then comes light pink at around 66 per cent, yellow at 57 per cent, and flesh color at 51 per cent.

Buff and light gray also test at 51 per cent, while light green and aluminum gray rate at 45 and 41 per cent, respectively. Lower in the scale come light blue and sage green with a percentage of 38. Dark red reflects only 13 per cent of the light that strikes its surface, while dark green and dark blue soak up all but nine and eight per cent of the light that hits them. Black, at the bottom of the list, is rated close to zero in its reflecting qualities.

C. WAYLAND BROOKS SPEAKS TO SOME 150 CLUBWOMEN AT FRANKLIN GROVE MEETING

"Ours is a new government, so designed that we can remain the freest people in all the world," C. Wayland Brooks of Chicago told some 150 clubwomen yesterday afternoon in Kersten gymnasium at Franklin Grove. He was addressing the annual fall meeting of the Lee County Federation of Women's clubs.

"All armies go to war with the thought that they are fighting in a good cause," Mr. Brooks stated. "In the World War, they were taught that all the men of the Allied armies, whether dark or light, were friends and that the men of the other side were fiends and murderers. All of them had been told that the Lord was on the Allied side, although the German armies had 'Gott Mit Uns' carved on their belt buckles."

Mr. Brooks declared that he believes this country should spend all that is needed for national defense, but not anything to send men over seas. "In Great Britain, about fifty cents of every dollar goes for support of the government one way or another," he said. "While in the United States, only twenty-six cents is needed. We must keep out of the European war so that when they do get through fighting over there, they will have something to look up to. We are the youngest government, but we are now the creditor nation of the world."

Pastor's Son
Mr. Brooks, who gave a comprehensive history of the United States government, asked to be remembered as the son of a former Congregational minister in Dixon. "Some of the happiest memories of my life," he remarked, "are of those early days." The speaker was the Republican candidate for governor of Illinois two years ago.

Each club in the county Federation assisted with the afternoon program. Mrs. Ben B. Billinger, former newspaper writer and a member of the Northern Illinois branch, National League of American Pen Women, represented the Dixon Women's club, presenting a request program of poetry.

Mrs. Billinger, who is also a member of the editorial advisory board of "Blue Moon," an international quarterly of verse, read an anti-war poem, "Final Stand," by Gustav Davidson, which reiterated Mr. Brooks' address: "The Fountain," by Ivy O'Boeg, written especially for Women's clubs; "Arcadian Error," by Helen F. Hayes of Dixon, the prize-winning poem in the Thirtieth District Federation poetry contest of 1938; and a poem of the south, "Hello, Honey."

Reads Own Verse
From her own collection of verse, Mrs. Billinger was asked to read "Back to My Hills," which was published on the illustrated cover page of "Arcadian Life" and reprinted under the page, "Laurals," in "American Poetry"; three short poems for children, "Little Miss Six Rode the Trail Today," "To a Child's Hospital Bed" and "To Little Miss Four in Surgery," "Personal Choice" and "Tribute to Wash Day." Mrs. Billinger is a frequent contributor of both verse and fiction to various poetry journals, news columns and current magazines.

Mrs. Charles Schmucker, president of the Franklin Grove Woman's club welcomed the guests. Mrs. Orla Nangle, president of the county Federation, responded. Special numbers included a solo and tap dance, "The Shabby Old Caddy," by Carolyn Herbst, a vocal duet by Mrs. Bessie Wendel and Ethel Beegley, songs by the Glee club of Franklin Grove high school, a reading by H. C. Barton, and a vocal solo by Mrs. T. A. Vaux.

Dixon Concert League Plans Final Drive

If, during the week starting Monday morning, you are not urgently invited to "sign on the dotted line" for your 1939-40 membership in the Dixon Concert League, it will undoubtedly be because your check has already been credited at the campaign headquarters in the Chamber of Commerce building.

A corps of energetic workers, headed by Mrs. I. B. Hofer, is conducting the intensive membership drive that was launched on Monday evening, Oct. 16. R. A. Joslyn is president of the League this year.

When divisional chairmen and team captains meet with the League officers this evening at headquarters, they will be reminded that this week is their final opportunity to sell memberships. They will be reminded, too, that upon the size of the organization supporting the organization depends the selection of the third concert of the artist programs.

Within three days after the close of the campaign—on Tuesday evening, Nov. 7—the season's concerts will begin, with appearance of the Graff Ballet, featuring Grace and Kurt Graff, celebrated international dancers. All of the programs will be presented in the Dixon high school auditorium, and no single admission tickets will be granted.

The Graffs, who have been acclaimed everywhere for the originality and humor of their ballet, opened their fall and winter itinerary on Monday evening, when an enthusiastic audience of nearly 1,000 persons witnessed their performance in the East Aurora high school auditorium. They are to appear in Kenosha, Wis. on Nov. 6, and the night after their Dixon engagement, they will entertain in Marion, Ind.

From Marion, they will head east for an appearance in New York City on Nov. 11. After completing a three week's tour of the east and southeast, they will proceed to Georgia and Florida and return to Chicago, before beginning a mid-winter tour of the southwest.

The Saldenberg Symphonietta, a string symphony of 18 players—violins, violas, cellos and basses—have been booked for the second concert. Daniel Saldenberg, resigned from the first cellist's chair of the Chicago Symphony orchestra four years ago in order to form his symphonietta. He draws upon a vast knowledge of orchestration, and of the individual instruments which comprise his organization, for the conducting ability so readily conceded him by critics.

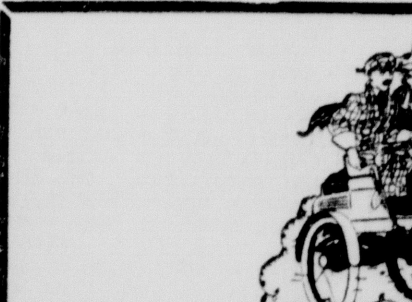

Cecil Smith, Chicago newspaper columnist and a discriminating critic, wrote recently as follows concerning the ensemble: "Mr. Saldenberg's young enthusiasts have devoted countless spare hours to the preparation of the symphonietta programs in the last three seasons, and the organization has become one of the genuinely indispensable musical groups of the city."

GRIFFITHS ENTERTAIN

Twenty-three of the young host's schoolmates at the North Central school made up the guest list. Orange and black tapers lighted the refreshment table, where a checkerboard cake, iced in white and topped with pink and green candles, was the center decoration.

PRO STUFF

Devotees of pro football in Dixon and vicinity will have an opportunity of witnessing one of the outstanding battles on the Chicago Bear schedule Sunday afternoon at Wrigley Field in Chicago. The Detroit Lions will furnish the opposition for the Bears, both clubs having met defeat last Sunday when the Lions withered before the Green Bay Packers and the Bears failed to overcome an early lead gained by the New York Giants. One week from Sunday, the Bears meet the Green Bay Packers in the leading contest of their schedule, the outcome of which may decide the championship of the western division of the National pro league. Several from Dixon are planning to witness this contest which will also be staged at Wrigley Field in Chicago.

DEADLINE IS NEAR

Students and fans wishing to participate in the contest to name the Dixon High School athletic teams have only until Wednesday afternoon to file their suggestions at The Telegraph office. Three Games Today Stand Out In College Football's Mid-Season

By HUGH S. FULLERTON, JR.

New York, Oct. 28.—(AP)—No matter how you looked at the dozens of good games on the college football program this mid-season Saturday afternoon, three of them stood out head and shoulders above the rest.

They were all east-midwest inter-sectional games—Cornell vs. Ohio State, Yale vs. Michigan and Carnegie Tech vs. Notre Dame.

Considering the known strength of the teams, their records and prestige, about the only other contests that might be mentioned in the same breath were North Carolina vs. Pennsylvania, Purdue vs. Santa Clara and two Pacific Coast conference clashes, Oregon-U. C. L. A. and Southern California-California.

Take the first, for example. Ohio State shares with Michigan the lead in the Big Ten, perhaps the most powerful of all college conferences with the single exception of its last-place member, Chicago. Cornell, long a ranking member of the east's informal but none the less influential "Ivy League," has come up with an unusually fine team, perhaps the best in the east.

Yale with a rather unimpressive record, hardly figured to give Michigan a tussle, but there was the well known fact that Yale teams just don't go down any way but fighting.

BOWLING

MAJOR LEAGUE

Medusa Cement won two from Hanson's Stars last night with Thompson leading the Medusa with 532 and Klein high for the Newsmen with 554.

Blatz took two from Plum Hollow with Miller leading the winners with 470 and Long high for the golfers with 509.

Dixon Paint fell far short of their total of last week and lost two to Chauffeurs Local. Lessner was high for the Locals with 470 and Dash led the Paint crew with 558.

One of the outstanding bowlers of this part of the country lives right here in Dixon. Last night proved it when Eddie Worley shooting anchor for the Crystal Barber Shop hit games of 258, 228, and 202 for a mighty 688 series, bringing his team two wins over the Coca Cola team.

Poole was high for Coca Cola with 554.

High games: Thompson 219, Smith 218, Klein 209, Worley 215, Shawyer 209, 210, Hanson 218, Klein 209.

Loss on Fumble
Mantch punted from right guard and tackle to pick up 13 yards before he fumbled on the DeKalb 48 and the hosts recovered.

Cook on a right end run raced eight yards, the second down netted no gain and Ronan made it a first down through center to the 38 from where, on a fake reverse, he dashed 11 yards to the Dixon 27. A spinner by Ronan failed to gain ground and H. Sawyer lateraled to Jarvi on a right end run which carried the ball to the Dixon 25 as the quarter ended.

DeKalb was penalized for holding to the 40 of Dixon and on third down Jarvi juggled a pass from center and was thrown for a loss to his own 42 where he was brought down by Mantch. On his forced punt he booted to Collins who took the ball on the 15 and romped to the 33 before he was nailed.

McNichols picked up a half yard on a spinner and Moser was smeared for a loss of four yards before Collins kicked and the DeKalbs were penalized for roughing the kicker.

12 Yard Pass
Ronan picked up two yards on the first place to the Dixon 47 and his pass to Sawyer was good for 12 yards to the Dixon 59 where the Barbs fumbled and a Dixon brigade fell on the pigskin. Mantch picked up a yard before Sanborn went through center to the 31. On a spinner Weidman slipped through to the 29. Collins' kick was blocked and Sanborn fell on it on Dixon's 39.

Dixon, weak on rushing the Barbs' secondary, was outclassed in speed and a stalwart line was often too much for the Lindell machine out of commission in the race to defend the crown.

Contrary to the usual performance this year, the locals played better in the first half than in the second and until mid-way in the battle there seemed a real hope that Dixon had found itself and would deliver a victory. But the Barbs' relentless drive and power flattened the locals throughout the second half as Coach Trees' boys scored once in the third frame and again in the final quarter.

Dixon Outclassed
Dixon, weak on rushing the Barbs' secondary, was outclassed in speed and a stalwart line was often too much for the Lindell machine out of commission in the race to defend the crown.

It was in the first series of downs in which Dixon gave promise of a big evening after Collins took the kickoff on his 30 yard line and raced to the 30 before he was halted. Mantch, on the first play, hit the right side of the line for five yards before Moser made it a first down off tackle to the 40. Mantch picked up about four yards through center and McNichols added a yard. Mantch was halted after a yard gained and Collins kicked out on the DeKalb 19.

DeKalb Begins Offense
DeKalb began its offensive with three straight first downs. On the first play, with the ball in possession of the Orange and Black, Cook picked up five yards and Ronan hit the center of the line

LAYDEN FEARS AN UPSET

Pittsburgh, Oct. 28.—(AP)—Notre Dame's fighting Irish risk their unbeaten record against Carnegie Tech before a sellout crowd of approximately 68,000 today.

While the betting fraternity gave the South Bend invaders a two to one edge, Coach Elmer Layden declared "the situation is ripe for an upset and we will have to be on our guard."

Bill Kern's sluggish Tech Skobis haven't approached the form which brought them the eastern championship and a Sugar Bowl bid in 1938 but loyal fans insisted the team has been looking ahead all the time to the 17th renewal of the grid feud with the Irish.

ON WEST COAST

San Francisco, Oct. 28.—(AP)—Purdue's Boilermakers, near the top of the Big Ten conference, meet Santa Clara today in an inter-sectional football game with the Boilermakers two to one favorites.

with one of his few passes of the game and Shoaf was unable to nab it. Hoeman, going around left end, picked up six yards and Sanborn's pass over the line was intercepted by Cook who returned from the 50 to the 41 of Dixon.

Sawyer on a reverse, went to the 38 and Ronan to the 36. Cook added two more yards and Jarvi punted to Moser who stepped out of bounds on his own 4.

Collins punted from behind his goal to the Dixon 32. Cook hit left guard and tackle for 11 yards to the 21 as the quarter ended and Cook's pass to Sawyer was good to the Dixon 4 yard line. A double reverse brought a loss of 7 yards and Sawyer tried the line again on a reverse and crashed through to the one-yard line from where Ronan plunged over for the second touchdown. Deallenback's kick was blocked by Wienman, DeKalb 13; Dixon 0.

Dixon Is Penalized
Following the kickoff Dixon took the ball on its own 31 and Hoeman slid off left guard and tackle for three yards. Dixon was penalized 15 yards to the 19 on a reverse from Sanborn to Mantch the latter returned to the 32. After Mantch picked up another yard Collins kicked to Sawyer who was stopped on his own 41.

Cook picked up five yards and Shoaf tackled Ronan on his own 45 for a yard loss. Jarvi punted to Moser on the 13 and he returned to the 22 before he was downed.

In fake kick formation Mantch picked up a yard and then on second down raced through right guard and tackle to the 29. Sanborn made it a first down on a line smash. Sanborn let loose with a pass to Shoaf which was good to the DeKalb 48 before a repeated pass was intercepted by Sawyer on the DeKalb 35 and he raced 10 yards before being downed.

A reverse from Ronan to Sawyer was good to the mid-strip and he circled the left side of the line for a first down to the Dixon 44.

On two more line drives DeKalb drove to the 33. Sawyer lost four yards on the next play and as the game ended the Barbs had possession on the Dixon 37.

Coach Marvin Winger's aggressive team of lightweight came through with flying colors last night to snatch the preliminary game, 6 to 0, from the DeKalb reserves. It saved the evening from a complete failure and gave attending fans a comforting feeling about next year's prospects. Both clubs fought through a scoreless first half although Dixon threatened seriously when Kelly sent a long pass to Vaughn who, apparently in the clear, was unable to hold on to the ball.

Soon after the second half began Weidman on an end run of 40 yards raced for the Dixon touchdown. Weaver's place kick was unsuccessful. In the final frame Dixon threatened again on a drive from mid-field which featured Kelly's pass of 30 yards to Shultz who was tackled on the Dixon 41. Weidman circled left and to the DeKalb 38 and a line plunge was good to the 33. Weidman made it first down on a crack at the right side of the line and Williams swept left end to the 29. DeKalb was penalized to the 24 and Williams' pass over the line on fourth down was no good and Dixon was forced to punt.

DeKalb Is Penalized
On the first play after the kick-off DeKalb was penalized five yards for offside and on first down Mantch picked up three yards to the Dixon 29. In fake punt formation Mantch made it a first down to the Dixon 33. Sanborn let go conversion on a line drive.

In the second period the Hawks ran up 19 points when Putnam intercepted a Polo pass and raced 40 yards to score. Later Franklin pulled the same trick on the bewildered Marcos and raced to another touchdown and then added the conversion. On a 25-yard dash R. Ferguson scored the third touchdown of the quarter.

Another pass interception gave Oregon its fifth score in the final period when Franklin snagged the oval and galloped 35 yards to score and then added the extra point.

Evening's Thriller
The real clash of the evening came at Princeton last night before a large homecoming crowd which saw Mendota come from behind in the last 30 seconds of play and score to knot the count with the Tigers, 6 to 6.

Princeton, reported to have outplayed the visitors in most of the game, chalked up 11 first downs to five by the Devitz-men. The Tigers scored on a 10 yard pass from Left Half Staples to Left End Richards. In the closing minutes of the game Mendota staged a drive to the Princeton one-yard line where the Tigers held, but a blocked punt gave the Mendota men a second opportunity to score and they were successful just before the game ended.

The Princeton lightweights won, 20 to 0. Next week Princeton will invade the Dixon gridiron on Saturday afternoon.

Touchdowns: Robinson, Genz 2, Higgins. Points after touchdowns: Smith (place-kick).

Rock Falls, with only one more conference foe to meet, maintained its clean record in the Rock River loop last night when the Rocks defeated Morrison, 25 to 0, on their own field before a large homecoming crowd.

The winners scored a touchdown in each of the four quarters and Robinson began the charge when he snatched the line for the 10-yard marker for the first score. Smith made the extra point on a place kick.

Again in the second quarter Robinson was largely responsible for the goal when his long heave of 25 yards to Genz was good for the second touchdown. In the second quarter he dashed twice as far for another touchdown. Kump, on a fake punt formation, ran 55 yards to set up one of Miller's scores. Kump also cracked the line for the conversion.

Substitute Merriman snatched a 40 yard pass from Kump to score the final touchdown.

Mt. Morris will play again with the week when the Mounders engage Morrison at Morrison on Thursday night.

Rock Falls won the preliminary, 6 to 0.

It was one of these planes which performed one of the war's most daring feats—a flight 600 feet above the Siegfried line with a camera snapping while the Germans, who apparently thought it was one of their planes, waved gaily at the pilot and crew. I asked an officer what the pilot had done. "Oh, he waved back at them," the officer said.

When a plane returns from one of these photographic missions, the films go directly to self-contained development units which, like everything else in the British army, are highly mobile. These units look like old fashioned crossroads diners, but the equipment is the newest obtainable. One was shown to me almost reverently by an R. A. F. sergeant, who said if the Germans started attacking he thought it would be "the busiest place in France."

Photographs taken so far have mapped almost the entire Siegfried line. In addition, the airmen have picked up singularly clear views of railroads, highways and ammunition bases. The number of men used on the ground to put one man in the air ranges between nine and ten. The planes must be camouflaged and overhauled, and fuel and food has to be brought up to feed men and ships.

SOCIAL SECURITY
The Telegraph begins today the publication of a series of questions and answers pertaining to the new amendments to the Social Security Act prepared by Walter R. Borman, manager of the Rockford office of the Social Security Board. These articles will contain information valuable to every wage earner and will give complete information on the operation of the law. An installment will appear each day until the series has been completed.

lowing year, he was elected to the bench as circuit judge and remained in that capacity until his untimely death last evening, having been re-elected in 1927, 1933 and in June 1939.

In 1933 he was appointed to the Illinois Appellate court bench for the fourth district at Mt. Vernon from which he resigned last June because of ill health. Among his other legal accomplishments, he was admitted to practice before the Supreme Court of the United States. He was a member of the Lee County and Illinois Bar Associations. Fraternally, Judge Edwards was affiliated with Friendship lodge No. 7, A. F. & A. M., Dixon Commandery, No. 21, Knights Templar, and Dixon Lodge, No. 779, B. P. O. Elks. Surviving him are his wife, Eleanor; brother, Frank L., of this city and a nephew, William, also of Dixon. The body will be taken home from the Preston funeral home Sunday noon.

had ordered discontinuance of the passenger train service as a result of which both express and mail service on the Freeport-Clinton branch was ended. The action of the commission in this instance as in others, took away home rule and the city of Dixon filed no objections to the discontinuance of the passenger train service, the mayor added.

"When the Illinois Central discontinued the passenger train service it became a belt line railroad and that's about all," Commissioner Vaile interposed. "I want the agreement by which the Illinois Central now operates through Dixon investigated. I believe that it is obligated in this agreement to maintain passenger train service on this branch."

Commissioner Vaile asked why the city of Dixon had not voiced a protest at the hearing before the commerce commission at the time the proposal to discontinue passenger train service was argued.

"Polo, Amboy, Forreston, Mendota and other places along the line smaller than Dixon opposed discontinuance of this service and who from Dixon protested?" the commissioner asked.

Seventh St. Crossing
The commissioner then called to the attention of the commissioners the Seventh street crossing of the Illinois Central, and said: "Does the railroad write its own ticket in Dixon? Here is a condition which is bound to bring sorrow into some home soon. Watchman service is maintained only a certain limited number of hours a day and the rest of the time it is unguarded. The crossing is unlighted and unprotected when the one watchman is off duty. The public is entitled to protection at all costs and I propose to see that this protection is provided by the railroad company."

After City Attorney Gerald Jones had advised that the only manner in which the commerce commission could be confronted with an action requesting restoration of passenger train service on the Illinois Central was by petition from the city, Commissioner Vaile lost no time in preparing such a motion which got the unanimous vote of the council. A resolution designating several blocks of north side streets to receive improvement under the gas tax fund was adopted by the council. The regular monthly bills, amounting to $3,866.08 were ordered paid.

Officials here were resentful at the fact that Steinhardt was not granted an earlier interview with Potemkin and that the soviet government released news of the vessel to Tass, official news agency, before giving it to the American envoy. Potemkin told Steinhardt it was his understanding that the Americans on board the ship were all well.

CONVOYED BY WARSHIPS
Berlin, Oct. 28 (AP)—News reached Berlin this morning that as well aboard the United States-owned freighter City of Flint as she voyaged her way through the British-blockaded North sea toward a German port. The freighter was being conveyed by German warships—presumably both submarines and surface craft. Aboard her, it was believed, were the American crew of 41 and the prize crew put in command last week when the German pocket battleship Deutschland captured her.

If she gets through to a German harbor, a prize court will pass on the question of whether she was a contraband carrier and decide as to disposition of ship and cargo. Germans recognized the danger involved in the precarious job of slipping past British warcraft. Bad weather and low visibility, however, were on their side.

JOHN ADAMS, ONE-TIME GOP LEADER DIES IN DUBUQUE

Former Chairman of National Committee is Stricken Friday

Dubuque, Ia., Oct. 28 (AP)—John T. Adams, 76, chairman of the national Republican committee from 1921 to 1924, died at his home here at 2 o'clock this morning after an illness of two months. He suffered a stroke yesterday morning.

Funeral arrangements will be announced later. He would have been 77 on Dec. 22.

John Taylor Adams, for 12 years Iowa member of the Republican national committee, and from 1921 to 1924, chairman of that body, was rated as one of the leading political strategists of his day.

Never seeking or holding an office, he used his flair for organization to make his impress upon party history, mapping and managing campaigns, steering candidates and the party away from recoil issues and, in general, guiding the party through the methods which enabled him to rise in business from office boy to the presidency of a big manufacturing concern.

He inherited his liking for politics. He was a direct descendant of the John Adams, who came to America early in the seventeenth century and whose descendants included John and John Quincy Adams, the second and sixth presidents of the United States. The Iowa's father, Shubael P. Adams, was born in Massachusetts, practiced law for 20 years at Lowell and represented that district before Congress in 1857.

His first job was as office boy at $3 a week with a sash and door factory. Eventually he became president of the concern and guided it to top ranking in its field. Adams took a minor part in Dubuque county politics until 1908. Then his fellow townsman, U. S. Senator William B. Allison, who had started a notable career by defeating Adams' father for congress in 1862, drafted him to manage for Allison against both Theodore Roosevelt and Cummings.

That was the year of the "Bull Moose" split in the party and out of it Adams emerged as a Iowa member of the national committee. Six years later, after the breach ostensibly had been healed, there was an echo of it in Adams' case. He had strong backing for the chairmanship of the national committee but "TR" joined in a fight against him and it was not until 1921 that he attained this place. Meanwhile, in the 1920 campaign, he had been in charge of the western Republican headquarters at Chicago.

When finally chosen to head the committee, on June 7, 1921, Adams was elected despite the fact that President Harding was known to favor an Ohio man for the post. This circumstance, plus a stand which Adams took against Harding's proposal to have the United States adhere to the World Court, led to many reports of a quarrel between the chairman and the titular head of the party, but Adams' friends always said their relations were friendly.

Much more cordiality developed between Adams and President Coolidge. The former was almost as reticent as "Silent Cal" and there seemed to be a close bond of understanding between them. Mr. and Mrs. Adams, their son and daughter, and several young guests at the White House in the Coolidge regime.

Mrs. Adams, before her marriage on May 19, 1926, was Miss Winifred Rose of Dubuque.

Seven Service Days Honor Girl Scout Founder

Each year the Girl Scouts set aside one week during which they demonstrate for the public the aims and program of Girl Scouting. Called Girl Scout Week, it is observed during the last week in October in order to honor the birthday, October 31, of the founder of Girl Scouting in the United States, Juliette Gordon Low. Each day of the week, beginning with Sunday as Church Day, is designated for some phase of the program: Monday, Homemaking; Tuesday, Arts and Crafts; Wednesday, Out-of-Doors; Thursday, International Friendship; Friday, Citizenship; Saturday, Health and Safety. Shown above, left to right, are Girl Scouts engaging in activities illustrating these projects: First aid to a pet in accordance with procedures learned in the Health and Safety program; service in a day nursery is a worthwhile community service project and is good citizenship too; sculpture is one of the most popular arts and crafts activities.

NEIGHBORHOOD MASQUERADE

Beverly Beier, little daughter of the George Beiers, observed the season of goblins and witches with an afternoon masquerade yesterday for five neighborhood playmates at "Belcliff".

Horns, noise-makers and other Haloween favors, were found by untangling long lengths of string concealed about the rooms. Favorite party games entertained until supper time. Guests were Don Member, Albert and Janet Newcomer, Bennie Roe and Judy Jones.

Martin H. Eakle, a member of the church council, introduced the bride and groom and called on Rev. Kammeyer of Polo for the invocation. Mrs. Harry Dietz sang "At Dawning," after which the pastors who were present were called upon for short talks. The following responded: Rev. Hightower of Mt. Morris, Rev. Saire of Lena, Rev. Koepf of Lanark, Rev. Kammeyer of Polo, Rev. Huemmer, Rev. Mertz and Rev. Maas of Forreston.

The guests were then invited to a table where ice cream, cake, coffee and mints were served. The center of the table was graced with a three-tiered wedding cake which was baked by Mrs. Chris Alberts and Mrs. Samuel Seas. Rev. and Mrs. Bolton then opened and displayed the fine gifts which had been showered upon them. The room was decorated with autumn leaves and potted plants.

Mr. and Mrs. August Salzgeber, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Kellner, Mrs. Arthur Bach and children Shirley and Norman of Chicago, Larry Deets of Princeton, Rev. Kammeyer of Polo, Rev. and Mrs. Koepf of Lanark, Rev. and Mrs. Saire of Lena, Rev. and Mrs. Hightower, Miss Emma Eakle, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Powers of Mt. Morris, Mrs. Martha Meyers and son Curtis, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Deuth of Oregon, Mr. and Mrs. Anno Stubbe and son George and Miss Clara Peters of Freeport.

When Mrs. Z. Glatzer's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Sejer, arrive in New York on Nov. 4, en route to Dixon to make their home, they will have traversed a zig-zag 16-day ocean voyage from Trieste, Italy. Mr. and Mrs. Sejer, whose departure from their home in Budapest for the United States was delayed by the outbreak of the European war, sailed from Trieste aboard the Italian liner, Vulcania, on Oct. 20.

FACTS

By Verne C. Higgins

It is generally accepted that Jesus came in order that we might have abundant life after death and that is true. But it is equally true that this abundant life belongs to this world here and now. Many of us live in a narrow, puffed, soured sort of a manner, not only in our lives but in our hearts. We are not looking for the finger prints of virtue instead of the foot prints of vice. Consequently, we see the dust, the mud and the gnats and the mosquitoes instead of the blooming flowers, the azure skies and the rippling brooks. Certainly this would be a very wonderful world if those of us who profess the name of Jesus Christ were to strive to enter each day into the richness of life that He has provided for us. This is a good world. It is full of good folk, not quite overflowing, but not quite empty. It is a world of devoted Christians. They are not restricted to any church, community, family, party or race. There are bad folk everywhere, but the number of wicked are not as large as one might conclude when reading what is termed "news".

The murderer, trickster, the cunning-minded who are bent on making trouble, snarling characters, are in reality the exception. Just take a look about you! How many criminally minded folk have you been associated with and personally known? How do these rats in proportion to the really good folk who are interested in common decency, fair dealing, and who help in the work which greatly inconveniences them and often means a sacrifice? Society is not what Christ would have it, but it is not as wicked as it would often seem. Evil is a power because the few are so active. "A falsehood will travel around the world before the truth gets its boots on to take after it." Righteousness is deliberate, sound, but slow in its take-off.

FRANCE REPORTS

SINKING OF ENEMY SUBMARINE

Discovery of Bodies Is Held Proof of Claim Made in Paris

Paris, Oct. 28.—(AP)—French military commentators said today the French navy had established proof that a German submarine had been sunk Thursday in undisclosed waters.

Announcement of the sinking, commentators declared, was deferred until today in order to obtain evidence on which to base a statement. Discovery of bodies floating in the region where the attack on the submarine occurred, it was said, provided the necessary proof.

Bodies of five German sailors and a naval officer have been washed ashore or found floating off the French coast, it was said. All appeared to have been in the water but a short time.

(Dispatches from Dover, England, reported yesterday the bodies of more than 50 German seamen had been recovered from a submarine washed up on the Goodwin sands, five miles from the Kent coast. It was not immediately clear whether the French announcement referred to this incident).

Sharing attention with the announcement of this naval success were two executions for espionage—the first reported in France since the start of the war.

Two Spies Executed

A military firing squad carried out the sentence of death on Dr. Karl Roos, 60-year-old Alsatian automaton leader, and a soldier companion named Lobstein, who were convicted of treason and espionage in behalf of Germany.

Six other defendants, convicted by the same court martial, were sentenced to serve prison terms ranging from three years to life.

All eight were charged with having furnished German agents with details of the movements of French troops in March, 1938, when Germany occupied the Rhineland, and in September, 1938, during the Czechoslovak crisis.

The French general staff, meanwhile, continued to watch ostentatious German military preparations in the Saarland, which they believed might be designed to distract attention from a surprise move elsewhere along the western front.

The German preparations were so obvious that one well-informed military commentator suggested the nazis might be planning an attack between Wissembourg and the Rhine—east of the Saar—with a simultaneous thrust through the Netherlands on the north.

Play Waiting Game

Such attacks, this commentator said, might give Germany badly needed naval bases in the Netherlands and an entry to France's Alsatian plain.

(Germany has denied intention of violating the neutrality of the Netherlands.)

The French themselves played a waiting game as floods aided their defensive strategy. The Rhine was reported to have risen 45 inches as a result of recent rains.

Military sources reported units as strong as 150 men were used by the Germans in local attacks at various parts of the front yesterday and that all attacks were repulsed. These sources declared that German artillery fire along the 100 miles between the Rhine and the Moselle was growing in intensity.

The announcement concerning the German submarine said the crew apparently had attempted to escape in deep water through the coming tower or torpedo tubes with the aid of mechanical lungs. The number of bodies recovered was not specified.

Highway Contracts Let by State $12,424,778

Springfield, Ill., Oct. 28.—(AP)—The state contracted for $12,424,778 in highway improvements in the first nine months of 1939. The division of highways reported Friday.

Projects embraced 131 miles of paving, 46 of grading, 25 bridges, 29 grade separations, 184 miles of widening, reconstruction and resurfacing of existing pavement, and 24 miles of bituminous surfacing.
